

Agenda of the “Big Data for Development and Humanitarian Action: Towards Responsible Governance”

*UN Global Pulse Data Privacy Advisory Group Meeting
The Hague, the Netherlands
23-24 October 2015*

DAY 1: Friday 23 October 2015

Morning Session:

(Living Lab, Leiden University)

8.30 – 9.30 Welcome Session (PAG members only)

Welcome and Introduction

- Robert Kirkpatrick, Director, UN Global Pulse, Executive Office of the UN Secretary-General
- Mila Romanoff, Legal and Data Privacy Specialist, UN Global Pulse, Executive Office of the UN Secretary-General

9.30 – 12.00 Working Session of the UN Global Pulse Advisory Group (Invitation only)

This meeting is open to a select group of expert guests from the public and private sectors. It will be conducted as a roundtable discussion with a one-hour session of parallel breakout groups. A few presentations by the experts will kick off the relevant discussions.

Group 1: Big Data Privacy Impact Assessment for Development and Humanitarian Projects
*Group Leads: Blair Stewart, Assistant Privacy Commissioner, New Zealand
Héla Ben Miled, Magistrate, Tunisian Administrative Court of Justice*

Group 2: Big Data Classification Scheme
Group Lead: Robert Bond, Head of Data Protection & Cyber Security Group, Charles Russell Speechlys LLP

Group 3: Big Data Framework: Data Privacy & Data Protection Guidelines for the Development and Humanitarian Sector
*Group Leads: Pablo Palazzi, Partner of Allende & Brea
Drudeisha Madhub, Data Protection Commissioner, Prime Minister's Office, Republic of Mauritius*

Group 4: Terms and Conditions for Data Access and Use in Public-Private Data Initiatives
*Group Leads: Pat Walshe, Founder of Privacy Matters
Ridwaan Boda, Partner at ENSafrica*

12.00 – 12.45 Lunch at the Mauritshuis Museum

Afternoon Session:

(Mauritshuis Museum)

13.30 – 17.30 Plenary Expert Discussion (Invitation only)

This session will be open to a select group of experts and will be conducted in a formal plenary setting.

Detailed Agenda of the Afternoon Session:

13.30 – 13.45 Welcome

- Reina Buijs, Deputy Director-General for International Cooperation, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands
- Simone Buitendijk, Vice-Rector, Leiden University

13.45 – 14.00 Introductory Keynote

- Robert Kirkpatrick, Director, UN Global Pulse, Executive Office of the UN Secretary-General

14.00 – 14.50 Discussion on “Beyond the Hype: From Potential to Impact”

This session will discuss the role big data can play in shaping decision-making processes for humanitarian action and sustainable development. Presenters will share examples and stress lessons learned in utilising big data in development and humanitarian contexts. It will be followed by an interactive conversation with the audience.

- Moderator – Bill Hoffman, Head of Data Driven Development, World Economic Forum

- Nicolas de Cordes, Vice President, Marketing Anticipation for the Orange Group
- Nuno Nunes, Coordinator, IOM
- Patrick Gordon, UN World Humanitarian Summit (WHS) Secretariat, UN OCHA
- Dr Jose Ramon Albert, Philippine Institute for Development Studies

14.50 – 15.10 Remarks and Keynote

- John Edwards, Chair of the 37th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners; Privacy Commissioner of New Zealand
- Jacob Kohnstamm, Host of the 37th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners; President, Dutch Data Protection Authority

15.10 – 15.40 Coffee Break & Networking

15.40 – 16.25 Discussion Session on Big Data Governance in Humanitarian and Development Fields

This session will discuss the challenges and solutions that could be offered when it comes to governance in the use of big data for development and humanitarian causes. It will explore private and public sector solutions, and views on private-public data sharing initiatives. Panelists will share examples of responsible data governance mechanisms and practices used by their organisations, it will be followed by an interactive conversation with the audience.

- Moderator – Pablo Palazzi, Partner, Allende & Brea
- Christopher Kuner, Co-Chair of Brussels Privacy Hub, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
- JoAnn Stonier, Chief Global Privacy Officer, MasterCard
- Alexander Beck, Senior Protection Officer, UNHCR

16.25 – 17.10 Big Data Challenges & Opportunities from the Regulatory Perspective

A conversation with regulators, discussing differences and similarities between commercial vs. humanitarian and development applications of big data, exploring possible solutions globally.

- Moderator – Linnet Taylor, Marie Curie research fellow, University of Amsterdam's International Development faculty
- Drudeisha Madhub, Data Protection Commissioner, Prime Minister's Office, Republic of Mauritius
- Blair Stewart, Assistant Privacy Commissioner, New Zealand
- Alexander Dix, Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, Berlin Data Protection Authority

17.10 – 17.20 Summary Remarks

- Jeroen van den Hoven, Acting Dean of the Faculty of Policy, Technology and Management, Delft University of Technology

17.20-17.30 Closing Remarks and Announcement International Data Responsibility Group

- Ulrich Mans, Peace Informatics Lab, Centre for Innovation, Leiden University

17.30 – 18.30 Reception

(Mauritshuis Museum)

19.00 – 21.00 Dinner, hosted by the Hague Municipality (Invitation only)

(Hotel Des Indes)

- Special Remarks by Ingrid van Engelshoven, Deputy Mayor of the Hague

DAY 2: Saturday 24 October 2015

The second day of the PAG working meeting is open only to a select group of expert guests from the UN system and relevant development and humanitarian agencies. The meeting will build upon the progress made during the Friday session in a more intimate setting, allowing for deeper investigation and delivery of concrete recommendations resulting from the discussions of the breakout groups.

Morning Session:

(The Peace Palace)

9.00 – 12.45 Working Session of the UN Global Pulse Advisory Group (Invitation only)

Detailed Agenda of the Morning Session:

9.00 – 9.45 Priority-Setting of the Day.

A few presentations on the relevant breakout group topics will kick off the discussion; big data projects will be presented as case studies for the upcoming session to test a draft of the Privacy Impact Assessment.

9.45 – 10.45 Parallel Breakout Sessions: Testing Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA)

Group 1: Testing PIA: Mobile Data Project
Gary Fowlie, head of the Liaison Office, ITU
Rohan Samarajiva, founding Chair of LIRNEasia

Group 2: Testing PIA: Radio Mining Project
Group Leads:
Blair Stewart, Assistant Privacy Commissioner, New Zealand
Danilo Doneda, Professor, State University of Rio de Janeiro

Group 3: PIA Section 3: “Assessing utility, risk and harms”
Group Lead: Khaled El Emam, Canada Research Chair, University of Ottawa, Canada
Héla Ben Miled, Magistrate in the Tunisian Administrative Court of Justice

10.45 – 11.00 Coffee Break

11.00 – 11.45 Reporting on the results of the breakout sessions and roundtable discussion

11.45 – 12.45 Parallel Breakout Sessions

Group 1: Big Data Classification Scheme
Group Leads: Alexander Dix, Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, Berlin
Data Protection Authority
Robert Bond, Head of Data Protection & Cyber Security Group, Charles Russell Speechlys, LLP

Group 2: Concept for Data Aggregation Guidelines
Group Lead: Khaled El Emam, Canada Research Chair, University of Ottawa, Canada

Group 3: Big Data Framework: Data Privacy & Data Protection Guidelines for Development and Humanitarian Sector
Group Leads: Pablo Palazzi, Partner of Allende & Brea
Drudeisha Madhub, Data Protection Commissioner, Prime Minister’s Office, Republic of Mauritius
Christopher

12.45 – 13.30 Lunch

13.30 – 14.00 Tour of the Peace Palace (Optional)

Afternoon Session:

14.00 – 16.30 Working Session of the UN Global Pulse Data Privacy Advisory Group (Invitation only)
Detailed Agenda of the Afternoon Session:

14.00 – 14.45 Reporting on the results of the breakout sessions and roundtable discussion

14.45 – 15.30 Breakout sessions to incorporate feedback, summarize recommendations & outcomes

Group 1: Terms and Conditions for Data Access and Use in Public-Private Data Initiatives
Group Leads: Pat Walshe, Founder of Privacy Matters
Ridwaan Boda, Partner at ENSafrica

Group 2: Big Data Framework: Data Privacy & Data Protection Guidelines for Development and Humanitarian Sector
Group Leads: Pablo Palazzi, Partner of Allende & Brea
Drudeisha Madhub, Data Protection Commissioner, Prime Minister’s Office, Republic of Mauritius

Group 3: Big Data Privacy Impact Assessment for Development and Humanitarian Projects
Group Leads: Blair Stewart, Assistant Privacy Commissioner, New Zealand
Héla Ben Miled, Magistrate, Tunisian Administrative Court of Justice

15.30 – 15.45 Coffee Break

15.45 – 16.30 Summary and Conclusion